Arizona is immensely difficult, regardless of your driving experience. Plenty of out-of-staters will tell you horror stories of how they failed terribly on the written exam... despite years of driving under their belts. And it's even scarier if you've never been behind the wheel. Because as excited as you may be to start driving on your own... you only get a few tries to pass the written test... before you're forced to begin the whole application process all over again. Even if you've read through the MVD handbook over and over, you might miss a "redundant" question where all of the answers look like they could be correct. And missing just one question is enough to invalidate your entire driver's license application. But there's a simple and easy way to save yourself the embarrassment of failing your driver's license test. With the right
