Bride burning is a form of domestic violence practiced in countries located on or around the Indian subcontinent. A category of dowry death, bride-burning occurs when a young woman is murdered by her husband or his family for her family's refusal to pay additional dowry. The wife is typically doused with kerosene, gasoline, or other flammable liquid, and set alight, leading to death by fire. Kerosene is often used as the cooking fuel for dangerous small petrol stoves, so it allows the claim that

The Preparation Realm of Heaven is a special place with the Lord Jesus where those who are called to be His Bride are being prepared for in this hour. The Preparation Realm of Heaven is a place of deep intimacy with the Lord Jesus. For those who desire to know Him more, to love Him more, to obey Him more, to submit to Him more, and to please Him more, The Preparation Realm of Heaven will take you there. For as it is written in Scripture: "Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and His Bride has made herself ready. Fine linen, bright and clean, was given her to wear." (Revelation 19:7-8). The Preparation Realm of Heaven is a beckoning call of the Bridegroom to His Bride "to make herself ready." It is a call to purity and holiness, and to dine with Him as He serves His spiritual food to us, hidden manna from Heaven. Lisa Jo Greer is president and founder of Awake The Bride Ministries. She desires to see the Body of Christ move into a deeper, more intimate and passionate relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, and to be the Bride that they are called to be. Through prophetic teaching, ministry, and impartation, Lisa unlocks deep truths and secrets of God. A practicing attorney in the natural, she also possesses an anointing for justice and teaches and ministers on accessing the courts of Heaven and decreeing divine justice on earth. Lisa, a licensed and ordained minister, also holds a Master of Arts in Religion (M.A.R.) degree in Old Testament, New Testament, and Theology. Lisa resides in Grantham, Pennsylvania, with her husband, Kieth, and their daughter, Hannah Grace.

He was a magnificent Cherokee prince—held captive in an alien land—the chosen one destined to save his people from the white invasion. She was a gently-reared squire's daughter, promised in marriage to a man she could never respect. But from the moment Fire Hawk and Kate's gazes locked and soul called to soul, the two were bound, caught up in a torrent of danger that swept them from the castled halls of Kent, across the Atlantic, to the wild splendor of the Great Smoky Mountains. There in the savage wilderness the star-crossed lovers must risk everything in a single cast in the game of destiny.

What's worse than death? Falling in love with the enemy. A princess sent to die. A forbidding Lord. A desire that cannot be extinguished. She can't help the attraction. It's instantaneous and undeniable. She must do all she can to keep her secret. But when he and his people discover the truth, What will become of her? Will this forbidden love destroy them both? Publisher's Note: This steamy fantasy romance contains elements of power exchange.

Twenty-two-year-old Militine Scott is in training at the Madison Bridal School in Seattle, yet she has no intention of pursuing marriage. What respectable man would have her? But she has found the school provides the perfect opportunity to keep her unsavory past hidden. Thane Patton, though fun-loving and fiercely loyal to his friends, hides a dark secret, as well. He finds himself drawn to Militine, sensing that she harbors a haunting pain similar to his own. Will they allow God to make something new and beautiful from the debris of their past?

A feel good festive novella from USA Today bestselling author Cindi Madsen. 'A runaway bride, a grumpy sheriff, lots of witty banter, laughs and chemistry make this a very enjoyable story'  Regina never dreamt that when she got to the end of the aisle, her fiancé would say he didn't want to marry her. Heartbroken and embarrassed, and still in her wedding dress, she jumps in her car and just drives. When she ends up in the small town of Friendship, she has no idea what will come next but after a few drinks too many, she is welcomed to town by a grumpy, yet handsome, sheriff. Emmett is used to carrying a lot of weight on his shoulders, but meeting Regina is like a breath of fresh air and soon sparks start to fly. Will these two lonely souls be able to heal each other and find the love they deserve? Take one jilted bride, one serious (-ly handsome) sheriff, add a bunch of matchmaking townsfolk and some laugh out loud banter and you've got the perfect festive read. *Originally published in the Christmas With You anthology Why readers love Runaway Christmas Bride: 'A beautifully written festive read' 'Oh man... this story had a soft smile on my face the whole time and when I finished, I cried happy tears just like you would at any wedding. Super sweet story!' 'A cute read about a grumpy sheriff and the runaway bride who captured his attention' 'Love this. . . I truly enjoyed their story and didn't want it to end'

"Set in the remote Scottish island with a rambling castle and a ruined monastery harking back to more matriarchal times, The Fires of Bride is Ellen Galford's second novel. The author of the rollicking Moll Cutpurse spins a tale of misty legend and mysterious reality in this one. Maria, a visiting artist from the mainland, arrives and is quickly seduced by the island's strange charm. Is it her affair with Catriona -- clan chieftan, doctor, witch -- that makes it impossible for her to leave? Or is it the inspiration of a place where women have, since Viking times, fought off male marauders?" -- Publisher's description.

Fayras colony ship has been waiting for five years for the Anvin to allow any of their personnel to wake. She is the first one to wake up, and she is also the only one. She is briefed on her situation she must prove her species worth in order to earn a place on this new world. To do that, she needs a mate, a child and nerves of steel. The five Fire Bringers never imagined that they would have a chance at a mate, let alone a family. They have to use their charms to win Fayras favour and all without touching her. It is a challenge they must rise to or lose their chance at a child of their own.
