'They're always lurking, invisibly, in the world, searching for a receptive vessel. The most vulnerable are people filled with fear and hatred. However, the situation with Muslov Deshnuie is too important an evil to let only junior archfiends handle it. This is when a head demon gets involved; he makes sure wrong is done right. The heart of man is where activity begins, good or bad. It is a spiritual, intangible thing that can't be scientifically analyzed.' Magnus Stone wants to be a good family man and live a quiet life in Central Texas. When confronted and asked to be an operative in the Unconventional Terrorism Department of the Central Intelligence Agency, he does not want to fulfill his destiny and legacy. Or does he? Magnus has to wrestle with his own inner demons to find the answer to that question. Little does he know that before he even has a chance to decide, he will be faced with real demons! Magnus has no choice but to step up as he becomes Code Name Joshua.

Spending money is the last thing anyone wants to do right now. We are in the midst of a massive cultural shift away from consumerism and toward a vibrant and very active countermovement that has been thriving on the outskirts for quite some time—do-it-yourselfers who make frugal, homemade living hip are challenging the notion that true wealth has anything to do with money. In Making It, Coyne and Knutzen, who are at the forefront of this movement, provide readers with all the tools they need for this radical shift in home economics. The projects range from simple to ambitious and include activities done in the home, in the garden, and out in the streets. With step-by-step instructions for a wide range of projects—from growing food in an apartment and building a ninety-nine-cent solar oven to creating safe, effective laundry soap for pennies a gallon and fishing in urban waterways—Making It will be the go-to source for post-consumer living activities that are fun, inexpensive, and eminently doable. Within hours of buying this book, readers will be able to start transitioning into a creative, sustainable mode of living that is not just a temporary fad but a cultural revolution.

A dynamic and hip collective biography that presents forty-four of America's greatest movers and shakers, from Frederick Douglass to Aretha Franklin to Barack Obama, written by ESPN's TheUndefeated.com and illustrated with dazzling portraits by Rob Ball. Meet forty-four of America's most impressive heroes in this collective biography of African American figures authored by the team at ESPN's TheUndefeated.com. From visionaries to entrepreneurs, athletes to activists, the Fierce 44 are beacons of brilliance, perseverance, and excellence. Each short biography is accompanied by a compelling portrait by Robert Ball, whose bright, graphic art pops off the page. Bringing household names like Serena Williams and Harriet Tubman together with lesser-known but highly deserving figures such as Robert Abbott and Dr. Charles Drew, this collection is a celebration of all that African Americans have achieved, despite everything they have had to overcome.

Imagine You... Talking to You... What would you say? Would you be proud of who you've become? In The Four Agreements, Don Miguel Ruiz brings us the wisdom from the Toltecs. The Toltecs were religious warriors who spread the cult of their god to all corners of their Empire. Their wisdom and teachings are timeless and universal. Have you ever gone through a day and wondered... what the heck have I done today? Or... Maybe you've done something 'bad' and you find yourself in disbelief. Moments to moments, we are guided by our values and beliefs. When was the last time you upgraded your values and beliefs? The Four Agreements is written by Don Miguel Ruiz and first published in 1997. Since then, the book has sold over 8.2 million copies in the US and has been translated into 46 languages. It has been on the New York Times bestseller list for over a decade. Here's what you'll discover... --- Agreement #1: Be Impeccable With Your Word --- Agreement #2: Don't Take Anything Personally --- Agreement #3: Don't Make Assumptions --- Agreement #4: Always Do Your Best --- And so much more.
