Ephesians 1:2 "Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and [from] the Lord Jesus Christ." Just as grace was the key word in Galatians, it is prominent in all of Paul's letters. He does want the blessings and favor of God to fall upon these people. True peace, just like true grace, comes from the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

By grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves –it is the gift of God." (Ephesians 2:1-10). In this portion, Paul shows how anyone who is saved must walk in good works, because "God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them".

Although Ephesians is one of the New Testament's shortest in terms of word count -- only 6 chapters and 155 verses -- it is perhaps its most applicable to today's culture. In addition to the divine beauty and power we find in Ephesians, this epistle also provides Paul's most direct address about the life that emerges from a disciple of Jesus. In this epistle Paul conveys his pastoral heart for the Ephesian believers by focusing upon who they are in Christ as it relates to their struggles, their new life, community, pursuits of unity and holiness, and how to engage life's challenges. Perhaps the most contemporary book in the New Testament, Ephesians and this study began. The book of Ephesians lays out this glorious vision, revealing what Christ's redemptive work means for the people of God and showing us how we should live in light of that reality. Alive in Him draws us into the main themes in the book of Ephesians, showing us how the blessings we have received in Christ empower our obedience and love for God. Designed to be read alongside an open Bible, Alive in Him helps us apply Paul's letter to our daily lives, reminding us of our purpose on earth and directing our gaze to the love of Jesus Christ—a love that has the power to transform how we live.

Paul was the most influential figure in the early Christian church. In this epistle, written to the founders of the church in Rome, he sets out some of his ideas on the importance of faith in overcoming mankind's innate sinfulness and in obtaining redemption. With an introduction by Ruth Rendell
