I don't know what I'm doing with my life. When you transition from teenager to adult, it can feel like you're expected to simply know what to do. On the one hand, adulthood is great; you get to decide what kind of life you want to have, and the freedom to pursue it your own way. But reality is tough. When it comes to building relationships, a career, and a financial future, where do you start? What does your "own way" even look like? Without the answers, it's easy to fall into anxiety, anger, and depression--and lose focus on the big picture you're trying to build. With her fifteen years of experience in young-adult-focused therapy and coaching, Jesse Giunta

Rafeh now reaches out to a wider audience with this accessible, practical guide to creating an extraordinary adulthood. In Life Launch, Jesse transforms intuition into practice, giving you a map to the questions you should be asking yourself. Unlike other books, she doesn't tell you what to do--instead, you'll build the roots of your perspective to unlock the insight you already possess. Combining deep self-reflection work with accountability and structure, you'll come away with a 360-degree view on the entirety of your adult life--what to do when you're lost, what kind of future you can envision, and the power you have to create it.
