“ Crunch crunch crunch. Teeth are strong and sharp. Crunch crunch crunch. Teeth can help you chew. But teeth are not for biting. Ouch! Biting hurts. ” Sooner or later, almost all young children will bite someone—a friend, a parent, a sibling. This upbeat, colorful, virtually indestructible book helps prevent biting and teaches positive alternatives. The companion to our best-selling Hands Are Not for Hitting Board Book, Teeth Are Not for Biting gives reasons why children might want to bite. Little mouths feel sore when new teeth come in; sometimes kids bite when they ’ re hungry, tired, cranky, frustrated, angry, bored, distressed, or seeking attention. Author Elizabeth Verdick suggests positive things children can do instead of biting: chew a chewy toy, drink a cold drink, get a hug, tell a grown-up. This book also includes helpful tips for parents and caregivers.

As parents and teachers know, yelling comes naturally to children. This friendly, encouraging book, geared to preschool and primary children, introduces and reinforces where and when to use an “ indoor voice ” or an “ outdoor voice. ” In classic Best Behavior style the author tells young readers, “ Your voice is a powerful tool. How you use it is up to you. ” Vivid illustrations show the times and places for an indoor voice, the ways people ask us to quiet our voices, and times when yelling might occur. “ What happens if you ’ re mad or frustrated or really, really excited? Your voice gets louder and LOUDER. ” But yelling hurts people ’ s ears and feelings. Children learn that they can quiet their voice and use their words to talk about a problem.

“ Think before you yell, and use your words well! ” Includes a special section for parents and caregivers with activities and discussion starters. The Best Behavior series uses simple words and delightful full-color illustrations to guide children to choose peaceful, positive behaviors. Select titles are available in two versions: a durable board book for ages baby – preschool, and a longer, more in-depth paperback for ages 4 – 7. Kids, parents, and teachers love these award-winning books. All include helpful tips and ideas for parents and caregivers.
