Some of the best places for photographs are Burton Bradstock | sunny days are best to capture the golden hue of the cliffs, the chalk sea stacks of Old Harry Rocks and the famous arch of Durdle Door. Chesil Beach and the Fleet are also very scenic, especially if photographed from the top of Abbotsbury Hill.

Britain's best locations for landscape photography

To the casual photographer, landscape photography in the Midwest is an oxymoron. The workshop advertising pages of outdoor photography magazines aren't exactly flooded with trips to the Midwest. It's all the more impressive, however, when one finds beauty in the more subtle and smaller pockets of the diverse natural landscape of the Midwest.
