Although anyone taking the LMSW exam is, of course, interested in social work, reading the exam content in a study guide can be a bit dry. So, I recommend reading in short bursts of time (15-20 minutes) to ensure that you're really taking the information in, not checking out as you read. I also found that it was easy to fit in a quick 15-20 minute study session several times throughout the day, instead of carving out several hours of dedicated study time (that would come later!)

The ASWB Masters Exam includes 170 questions spanning four core aspects of a career in social work. Those four aspects include: Human Development, Diversity, and Behavior in the Environment. Human growth and development. Concepts of abuse and neglect. Diversity, social/economic justice, and oppression.

Students and social workers preparing for the social work Masters licensure exam will find an invaluable study resource in the Social Work ASWB® Masters Exam Guide. Written by a prominent social work leader and trainer for social work licensing exams in the U.S., the guide is based on years of time-tested exam prep workshops conducted by the author. It mirrors the ASWB Masters' "Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities" upon which the exam is based, as well as incorporates information from the DSM-5, which will be included in the exam starting in mid-2015. The guide is comprehensive yet focused on the material most likely to be included on the exam, so that students can prioritize information as they study. A self-assessment section helps readers identify their strengths and weaknesses before they tackle the material. The author shares her extensive knowledge of the exam by providing useful test-taking strategies and tips for overcoming test anxiety. The 170-question practice test at the end of the guide (with explanations of the correct answers) mirrors the actual exam in both length and structure.
