This book is about a mouse named Owen who wakes up Easter morning to find all the treats the Easter Bunny left. He eats the jelly beans, gumdrops, buttercream eggs, and big chocolate bunny first, then he forms a bond with the little marshmallow chick and plays with it all day long. I can't tell if I like this book because there isn't much to it.

Virgil and Owen are best friends! They love playing together at home and at school. But sometimes even best friends can be very different. Virgil loves to be the first one to school. Owen likes to take his time. Virgil always raises his hand the fastest. Owen likes to think things through. One day Virgil hurries Owen a bit too much, and their friendship is suddenly on thin ice. Will Virgil be able to see that a little patience goes a long way between friends? In a new picture book with audio featuring this lovable duo, Virgil and Owen show that even if friends don't agree, they can always

Every great friendship started somewhere, but here's a story of how not to make friends... When Virgil the penguin finds a lost polar bear, Owen, he wants Owen all to himself. He will be the only penguin with a polar bear as a best friend! But this Owen plays with everyone else on the iceberg! Isn't Owen supposed to be Virgil's friend and Virgil's friend only? With a gentle twist on this classic childhood dilemma, Paulette Bogan introduces a new charming and lovable duo to readers in this picture book with audio.
