Most business and marketing courses will recommend Kotler as essential reading. He has a very nice style and explains the fundamentals of marketing in this book and how marketing is applied within the business context. The latest version would obviously be more up to date but the principles have not changed that much since this edition.

Applied Marketing is a concise product that provides the very latest examples of marketing techniques and campaigns from today's business world without compromising on traditional theories of marketing. Marketing is about decision making and professors want material that will help students develop their critical thinking skills so they can think like a marketer and see that marketing is everywhere around them. Who better to develop such a product than a practitioner, Andrew Loos of Attack Marketing, and an academic, Daniel Padgett of Auburn University. Together
