Ant Anstead's Building a Special brings the Haynes story full circle, coming 61 years after the original Building a 750 Special was written by John Haynes, Haynes Publishing's founder, when he was still a schoolboy. This book is a TV tie-in, following the 12-part TV series Ant Anstead Master Mechanic, aired on Motor Trend, part of the Discover Network in the US and UK, following Ant Anstead's build of his own-design 'special' car, taking inspiration from the Alfa 158 - the first World Championship-winning F1 car, which raced from the 1930s until the 1950s. The 12-part TV series followed Ant's build of the car, from the first design ideas, through the construction, culminating in the debut of the car during the 2019 US Grand Prix weekend in Austin, Texas. The book follows Ant's personal build of the car, from the selection of the donor MG TD for the chassis, and Alfa Romeo Spider for the engine and gearbox, through modifying the chassis, building the suspension, steering, brakes, bodywork and interior, and putting all the components together to produce a finished one-off 'special.' Content includes: Introduction The history of specials Planning Donor car Chassis, suspension, steering, rear axle Engine, fuel system, cooling system, ancillaries, exhaust Gearbox Bodywork Braking system Cockpit Wiring Preparation and painting Testing Setting up and Making road legal.

The dinner with Emma was a gift after the tense period in Budapest. While eating, I looked at her face as she was talking, animated, relaxed, laughing, with short periods of seriousness. I wished I could take pictures in those moments, moments that I had missed, moments that I usually miss. I often thought about my pictures, what sort of photographer was I? A portrait photographer? A journalist? In that moment, thinking of taking pictures of her while she was eating, of the way she closed her eyes with each bite, and laughed under the calming light in the room, I considered myself a photographer of moods. Mark works in a current affairs magazine as a photographer. He spends his time bickering and philosophising with his friends. Young to middle aged, Mark and his friends pass their moments avoiding commitments, shunning what goes on around them. There are times to make decisions often made through no action. Responsibilities dissolve in comfort, and emotions seem to be foreign phenomena in their life under illusion of personal liberty. Can this all change?
