Systemic Functional Linguistics is a functional model of language inspired by the work of Saussure, Hjelmslev, Whorf, and Firth. SFL was developed by Michael Halliday and his colleagues in the 1960s and has grown into a widely studied and research field, with growing interest in China, Latin America, and North America. This new five-volume collection from Routledge focuses on the foundational papers underlying SFL theory and practice and illustrative papers that have inspired succeeding work.

This textbook provides a comprehensive account of the most important new Civil Procedure Rules, Practice Directions and Pre-action Protocols, which make up our newly reformed civil procedure system. The substance of the rules are considered in detail and their effect explained to make it clear how they operate in practice. Case law is examined to demonstrate how the court applies the rules in practice. The Woolf Reforms are used to explain the rationale of the new system.; The book provides not only a clear guide to the meaning of the new rules but also a vital insight into the new culture, typified by case management, proportionality and the overriding objective, which has fundamentally reformed the principles on which our civil procedure system is based. A critique is given of the merits of the reforms and the likelihood that they will achieve their objectives.

minority and the majority of - mainly black - South Africans, many of whom still live below the poverty line." -- Mike van Graan.

This title presents the management of Early Childhood Development (ECD) centres for children from birth to nine years old.

Tells the story of how Isaac Newton developed the laws of motion and the law of universal gravitation. Written in graphic-novel format.

"...People were bound to the earth in such an intrinsic way, that they saw themselves as a part of the soil itself." Based on the principle of Plato's classical blueprint for the ideal republic, and Thomas More's utopian vision, Design for Life is an exploration into the personal life of a young boy on the verge of manhood, who discovers that civilization is built on more than just benevolence, and good intentions. A story for yesterday, a conversation for today, and a vision for the future!
