"This book is essential reading for any PA or Executive Assistant in helping them manage their email inbox. It is extremely well written, providing very practical solutions to the problems of email overload and managing one's inbox. The style is engaging in a 'day in the life of a PA' format...great read but more important very useful practical advice" Professor Sir Cary Cooper, Manchester Business School, University of Manchester "Thought provoking and intuitive - an uncomplicated guide to email management." The New Executive Assistant is a guide for EAs and their executives, designed to help them reconsider the EA role and look at it in a new light. The premise is simple: the more effective the EA, the more effective the executive ... and the more effective the organisation.

We all have a personal brand whether we realize it or not. It determines not only our long-term earning potential but also at times our future opportunities. A strong personal brand cannot be faked, it needs to be authentic and is refined over time by being consistent and professional. The goal of this book is to get practical about building and maintaining a strong personal brand. In a world where more assistants are competing for fewer positions we need to become aware of the value of our own personal brands, and how to make our brands work for us. We need to know what the things are that build or damage our brands, and how we can ensure that our brands are considered desirable. This book will take you on a journey in which you will analyse your own brand's health, learn tools for brand building, understand the brand breakers you might encounter in your life, and discover brand recovery strategies, by the end of which you will be able to establish and maintain your own brand as a premium one throughout your career.
