I purchased this book to read with my class and must say it's a great adaptation of this traditional tale. It contains simple text with the traditional refrain (the gingerbread mans song "run run as fast as you can you can't catch me in the gingerbread man!") and not over wordy, making it easy to follow for young children, whilst offering them a chance to join in with the story.

When a class leaves for recess, their just-baked Gingerbread Man is left behind. But he's a smart cookie and heads out to find them. He'll run, slide, skip, and (after a mishap with a soccer ball) limp as fast as he can because: "I can catch them! I'm their Gingerbread Man!" With help from the gym teacher, the nurse, the art teacher and even the principal, the Gingerbread Man does find his class, and he's assured they'll never leave him behind again. Teachers often use the Gingerbread Man story to introduce new students to the geography and staff of schools, and this fresh, funny twist on the original can be used all year long. Includes a poster with fun activities!
