Phoenix Suns fans will enjoy this funny and emotional account of the incredible career of Iowa farmboy turned Hall of Fame broadcaster Al McCoy. McCoy, the voice of the Suns for almost 40 years, is a very popular personality in the Phoenix area. Prior to joining the Suns in 1972, McCoy was the broadcaster for the Triple-A Phoenix Giants baseball club. He was the weekend television play-by-play man for the Arizona Diamondbacks in 1998, the club's first season. He was inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007. This book collects stories told by McCoy himself, and about McCoy by an all-star cast, including players, fellow broadcasters, and fans. Includes 32 pages of photographs.

Life is filled with twists, turns and tough choices. Connor now faces a life-changing decision. Is true happiness found in getting what you want? Or is it from finding what you need? Connor Dougherty has the world at his feet. However, his mother's spiteful last act rips his future away from him and leaves the family ranch to his brother, Greg. He offers Connor a chance at getting his ranch back. All he has to do is go undercover, get a ranch job with Greg's future in-laws and help Greg sweep his sweetheart off her feet. Ty Gibson has never had much of anything. Although he's not sure about taking a ranch hand job, it's better than not working at all. When a mysterious young cowboy, Skip McCoy, shows up on the ranch, Ty finds a welcome distraction in the workplace. If there's one truth to ranch life, it's that everything eventually breaks down. Skip McCoy isn't who he says he is and Connor Dougherty isn't sure how long he can keep up his disguise. Can Connor's wits save the day and help his brother win the love of his life? Or will his feelings for Ty make him willing to risk it all for his own budding love? Please Note: This book contains adult language & steamy adult activities, it is intended for 18+ Adults Only.
