A book of daily devotions offers inspiration and advice on how to achieve spiritual progress and tranquility.

A powerful new movement is sweeping across America: Christian men are coming together to make a difference in their families, churches, businesses, and communities. They are helping one another acknowledge a deep-seated need and hunger for spiritual nourishment and Christian fellowship. They are "sharpening" one another's understanding of what it means to be a man today. The first book of daily meditations created expressly for men in search of spirituality, Promises to Keep draws together the words of hundreds of prominent Christian authors and leaders. Offering inspiration and motivation, this little treasure provides the spiritual dimensions lacking in the lives of so many and proves that men can be strong and tender, can lead without tyranny, can be authoritative without arrogance, and can have relationships with each other that are full of meaning, insight, and even love.

This charming devotional book takes readers on an inward journey to the miracle of Christ's birth in the little town of Bethlehem. Many who will read this book probably haven't actually traveled to Bethlehem. "But that is of little consequence to the adventure of arriving there, to the adventure of discovery that awaits the mystery and wonder in the birth of Jesus," Todd Outcalt writes. The devotions are both personal and challenging. "I hope readers can discover something new that they may have overlooked in the old, old story," says Outcalt. It's important to stay alert on the pilgrimage to Bethlehem, Outcalt reminds readers, for they may encounter Jesus in unexpected moments and surprising people or when they are most tired or confused. "The way to Bethlehem is saturated with stops and starts, with both darkness and light, with angels and the common touch of shepherds," writes Outcalt. Let Us Go Now to Bethlehem contains devotions for the 28 days of Advent, the 12 days of Christmas, and the day of Epiphany. For small-group leaders, the book includes a 6-week study guide with weekly questions for reflection and conversation, a suggested scripture passage for each week, and an invitation to ponder the happenings of that week. As the Gospel of Luke attests, Let Us Go Now to Bethlehem is both an expectant declaration filled with mystery and a declaration of faith. Each day can offer these same expectations and wonders for readers if they open themselves to awe and joy.

A collection of devotional readings and Bible verses presenting the life of Jesus as a blueprint for daily choices made by Christians, in such areas as thankfulness, popularity, generosity, and obeying God's will.

What more encouraging way to gain perspective than by talking to someone who has been there, especially when that someone is one of your peers. Written expressly for teens by teens, this unique 365 day devotional is filled with personal experiences that are relatable and heart-felt. In addition to learning teen to teen how to deal with difficult issues and maneuver the often trying path to adulthood, each devotion leads teens to move into a deeper relationship with Christ as they recognize that He is the answer to life's problems and strife. Through the stories of others, teens see how God works in our lives when we open ourselves to Him. The devotion includes hundreds of teen authors and teens love reading what their peers have written. This devotional creates a safe, social atmosphere for teens to learn that they are not alone and that God is at work in their lives. Teens learn from other's failures and triumphs how to make the right choices. The impetus for this devotional is to help teens understand how God can and does work in their lives.

A Powerful 35-day Devotional Geared Towards Giving You True Prosperity This devotional contains God's word packaged in thematic capsules to give your day the necessary boost for fulfillment. Many believers start their day without ever seeking the support of God's word. This is not the correct way for a true Christian to go through life. We should all begin our day with the one thing that God left for all of us, His word. Life has become so hectic and stressful that in order to truly live a Christian life, you need to tap into the word of God on a regular basis. This is the only way to stay tuned into God and be able to stay on the right path to Him. This daily devotional will make it easy for you to start your days off as God intended. By reading the following verse from the bible, you can see just how important this really is: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1) This devotional will help you develop a pattern that will set your life in motion towards many blessings. You need a daily catalyst, you need this daily devotional. "But he answered and said, it is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God" - Matt 4:4

Open your Bible and prepare to find the power of His presence. Beloved teacher Ray Stedman takes you on a journey through the Scriptures, one book each month, on a daily devotional tour that will both inspire and motivate you with the eternal truths of God's Word. The theme of the believer's dependence on Christ is made evident as The Power of His Presence takes you through both the Old and New Testaments on an easy-to-read, easy-to-grasp, devotional experience.

Pull away from the things that pull you down and find lasting encouragement for today. The women at Proverbs 31 Ministries offer 100 devotions of wit, wisdom, and encouragement for women. For twenty years the P31 team has equipped and encouraged nearly a million women to live in the power of God's truths that apply to their everyday life. Written by women from every walk of life, you will find inspiration to live authentically and fully grounded in the Word of God. The P31 Team shares from the realities of everyday life including highs and lows, humorous stories and tender moments. You will be drawn toward the truths God offers and enabled to rise above and become all God created you to be.
