Designed to introduce young children to the unfamiliar situation of visiting the dentist in an amusing and friendly way. Features Stephen Cartwright's delightful illustrations, providing lots to look at and talk about. An ideal starting point for young children and adults to discuss first experiences.

Describes the process of moving to a new home, as the Sparks' family packs, moves, unpacks, and meets their new neighbors.

Percy and Polly Peach, twins, get ready for their first day of school, where they will make things, sing songs, have milk and cookies, and make new friends.

Each title in the First Experiences series introduces very young children, in an amusing and friendly way, to a situation they might find themselves in for the first time. The use of simple vocabulary also enables slightly older children to read the books for themselves.

This series introduces young children, in an amusing and friendly way, to situations they might find themselves in for the first time. Stephen Cartwrights gently humorous illustrations are full of things for children to look at, learn from and talk about, and the simple text will enable slightly older children to read the books for themselves. All the titles in this series have been completely revised and updated.

Tim and Rosie Tripp and their parents travel by airplane on their vacation.

Warm friendly introduction to first time situations for young children. 2-6 yrs.

Leading scholars from across the social sciences present empirical evidence that the obstacle of regulatory capture is more surmountable than previously thought.

Nellie and Ned are invited to a party.

Follows the Judd family as they take Jake to the dentist with a toothache and Jessie for a checkup. Prepares a child for the visit by describing the procedures, equipment and staff involved in a dental examination. Includes tips on keeping teeth clean.
